Comment: If we wanted to put 2 more storeys on our house, I'm sure it would be turned down on the grounds that it wouldn't be in keeping with the neighbourhood. I can fully understand that, and surely that's what the planning process is all about. How can a 4 storey urban style development not affect the character of Orchard Lane?

What plans (cast iron guarantees) are there in place to upgrade the sewer main? It's already struggling with the additional Cala estate, and a few of us have had to take on the task of clearing blockages when they occur (rather than wait days for Thames Water to turn up)
