Comment: Yet another amendment. Why? No one wants this development - any of it actually. Total overdevelopment. The sheer density of it. Not in keeping with the detached dwellings already existing. The effect of all the extra traffic in the area causing disruption and lengthy delays. Also the effect on the health of residents from all the extra pollution. The loss of trees thereby depriving what's left of the wildlife. All in all a shocking situation. How sad that this overdevelopment is actually being given consideration when you can see what the plans of the developers were all along. You allowed them in and now they are taking total advantage. They don't care. It's all about their profit.
