Comment: A well thought out and planned development that makes use of dead space that would otherwise not be useable. Slight misgivings about the traffic levels on Claygate Lane but I am sure another 10 or so cars coming and going won't make much of a difference. The road is shockingly bad anyway and in my view they should put restrictions on it during the busy times to minimise traffic jams. The fact the road is used as a rat run from the bypass is crazy when traffic should be pushed down Manor Road North instead.
