Comment: I live on Anyards Road. There is not enough parking in the area as it is. The road is only big enough for one car to pass and is not suitable for heavy traffic. We already suffer from too much traffic and a lack of parking. The road is already dangerous due to cars speeding and the development will make this worse. Removing one bungalow and a set of garages to build 20+ homes is ridiculous. The noise and disruption would be too much. This area is already too densely populated.
