Comment: I repeat my previous objections to this large and overbearing building. This new application is very little amended and is far too massive for this setting. The height has been reduced minimally and it still encroaches onto the pavement. The probable loss of kerbside parking will deter visitors and be detrimental to trade. I question the wisdom of providing balconies overlooking such a busy and polluted A road. We live in a time where we are urged to "make do and mend" so refurbishment of the existing shops and flats would be appropriate.
