Comment: The narrower streets causing major issues when going through the village, this is. A real issue as someone who passes through Oxshott every day to get to work
The loss of the Oxshott feeling, the nature and look of the high street is so stunning and think ruining it with huge buildings is going to turn people away from wanting to live be in the area. I really am against it.
The lack of parking on the tiny streets for the builders aswell
