YOUR COMMENTS ON THE CASE

Dear Sir or Madam,

I live just up from this development in Weybridge. We do not need any more flats in Weybridge. The first development that they built was finished a while ago and hardly any have sold. There are 100s of flats sitting empty in our town plus even more empty flats in the adjacent town. If you look on rightmove you will see at least 256 flats for sale excluding ones for let in KT13 and KT12. It is my opinion that it is purely greed that is driving this proposal.

These flat developments are destroying our landscape, our wildlife, increasing pollution (from the motor vehicles) and our communities. We don't have the infrastructure to deal with the traffic so to add more people living here will only add to the congested roads. Weybridge once was a lovely town now it's just full of flats and traffic jams.

I really hope this application is rejected as our local councils have rejected it twice.

Yours faithfully,

Kaye Coleman
Weybridge resident
